

MID-MARKET RENT APPLICATION - STAGE ONE

Thank you for expressing an interest and applying for a Highland Residential Mid-Market Rent property. Please find enclosed an application form and some guidance notes on completing your stage 1 application.

What is Mid-Market Rent?

Mid-Market Rent is targeted at people on a low to moderate income and provides an alternative solution to people who are struggling to find affordable private rent properties.

Applicants are required to complete the application form and return with the required enclosures. Submitting a completed application does not guarantee you an offer of a mid-market rent property. Fully completed applications will be assessed on a first come first served basis, but priority will be given as per the below:

Who is given priority?

Priority will be given to applicants who are already a local authority/housing association tenant. Thereafter, priority will be given to:

- Those with no/low support needs or households where any support needs are being fully met at the time the tenancy is being offered.
- Those with the longest time spent on the Highland Housing Register
- Those without security of tenure in current accommodation
- Those living with friends or relatives
- Those living in private rented accommodation

Budgeting

When you are considering renting a home you need to allow for a number of costs of running a home including:

- Paying monthly rent
- paying tax on the property to your local authority;
- home contents insurance
- utilities

Am I eligible?

In order to qualify for one of these properties we will assess your application on the following criteria:

- Income & Employment – You must be in employment with your current employer for a minimum 6-month period. A single person's annual income must not exceed £25,000. The annual income for one household must not exceed £33,000.
- Evidence of Savings – You will be asked to provide evidence of savings, e.g., bank statement, savings account or other proof, showing that you have the necessary one and a half month's deposit and initial month's rent which will need to be paid at the commencement of your tenancy. The deposit will be held by a government approved tenancy deposit scheme provider to cover any breakages or damage to the property or landlord's contents during your tenancy.
- Household Size – In order to ensure that people are allocated an appropriate size of property, we need to know about your household size, so that we allocate a property which is not too small for you.

Documentation to substantiate these 3 main categories have been asked for in the main application. If your stage 1 application is successful, we will request further information including landlord and employer references.

For further information or guidance on completing your application, please contact the Highland Residential team using the details above.

PLEASE NOTE If you are successful at the application stage your details will be passed to our referencing company who carry out references on our behalf.

Part Eight – Monthly Budgeting

Monthly Budgeting – Best Practices

Before you move into a rented home, it's essential you calculate your monthly budget to work out whether the property is right for you or not. Here's how you can budget to ensure that you can afford to move into a rental property and how you can always make sure you have enough money to pay the rent during your tenancy.

Covering initial rental costs

If you're looking for your first rental property, then you'll need to save for up-front costs before you move in. These can include:

- A deposit (normally 6 weeks rent) and first month's rent in advance
- A credit check - Highland Residential do not charge for this

If you're looking online at sites such as Rightmove, then they're usually displayed.

In addition, if you're looking for an unfurnished property, remember you could have a large outlay on furniture and other essential items.

Knowing your outgoings

In order to calculate whether you can afford a property, you need to work out your outgoings. To do this, you'll have to make a list of your expenses, including how much it will cost you to rent a property.

These generally include, but aren't necessarily limited to:

- Rent
- Fuel bills (gas, electricity and possibly water)
- Telephone costs, line rental charges and internet
- Council tax (unless you are exempt)
- Service Charge / Factoring Charge

These are all essential costs that you'll have to pay every month while you're renting the property. In order to maintain a good relationship with your landlord, the local council and energy suppliers, it's vital that you pay these bills on time.

In addition, there will also be other items you pay for monthly or buy regularly, such as:

- Contents insurance
- TV licence (if you watch television or live television on a smartphone or laptop)
- Satellite subscriptions (such as Sky TV)
- Mobile phone costs
- Gym membership

- Dentist and optician costs
- Food and household items
- Clothes
- Credit card or loan repayments
- Entertainment costs, Gifts
- Transport costs (petrol for a car or train and bus tickets)

Calculating your income

Once you've calculated what you're spending, you'll be able to work out how much you should have left based on your incomings. Your incomings include all the money you have coming in, including:

- Your wages
- Your benefits (if applicable)
- Loans and contributions from family members
- Any money you make from other activities or second jobs

Getting help with costs

If you're struggling with the costs of renting, then there may be a chance you can get help. If you're either unemployed or on low income, then you may be eligible for universal credit or support allowance if you have a disability, so it's well worth considering these options before you rent.

Use a budget calculator

Finally, if you're struggling to work out the maths involved, or just need a structured calculator to work out your finances for you, then it's well worth using Shelter's budget calculator to help you calculate costs.
